Dear [Redacted Name]

It is with sincere regrets that I and your many friends at the FBI learned of your decision to leave the government after more than twenty years of service. You have assisted us greatly over the past few years and we will miss your counsel.

All your friends here at the FBI, and I count myself among them, wish you the best in your new and challenging career. These good wishes are also extended to your family.

The attached  has been received in the Records Systems Section, appropriately initialed, and indicated for file. By use of instant transmittal memorandum, all necessary recording and indexing will be accomplished. It is to be noted this form is for internal use only within the Records Systems Section, principally by the Routing Unit where bulky material not accompanied by memorandum is usually received.

The enclosure, if bulky and not usually filed with other papers in file, may be detached but this action should be clearly noted under the word "Enclosure."

b3

I would like to express my gratitude to you for taking the time to appear at our recent Regional Foreign Counterintelligence Conference in Baltimore.

I thought that your remarks were timely, candid, and interesting. This opinion is buttressed by the numerous comments I heard from attendees who expressed their opinion that your appearance was a conference highlight and that your candidness was particularly noted. Such appearances by us before [redacted] cannot but contribute to the better mutual understanding and operations which we both seek.

b3

Thank you again.

Dear [redacted] (S)

It gives me a great deal of pleasure to extend best wishes on behalf of the entire FBI on your retirement from the Central Intelligence Agency.

This special occasion offers us an opportunity to thank you for the excellent professional relationship we have enjoyed with you. You have always supported us in our work and have devoted considerable time and effort to enhancing the relationship between our agencies. I know that your distinguished career has been filled with many notable accomplishments and you must be very proud.

Your many friends in the FBI join me in wishing you every happiness and success in the future.

RE: RELATIONS WITH THE CIA;

[REDACTED]
APPRECIATION PLAQUE

DETAILS:

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED] Throughout this period, he has displayed a positive attitude toward the FBI, and has devoted considerable efforts to enhance the relationship between the FBI and CIA. Because of his outstanding cooperation over an extended period of time, [REDACTED] is fully deserving of special recognition in the form of a letter and appreciation plaque.

If approved, this plaque and letter will be presented by appropriate personnel of the Intelligence Division during the week of 11/28/83 at a location to be arranged by the Liaison Unit.
